Dear Sir or Madam,

Reference is made to (i) the 2019 Circular in relation to the issue of the Convertible Bonds; (ii) the announcement of the Company dated 6 July 2022 in relation to the First Amendment Deed; and (iii) the announcements of the Company dated 11 July 2022 and 15 July 2022 in relation to the Second Amendment Deed.

The purpose of this circular is to provide you with, among other things, (i) further details of the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments); and (ii) a notice of the EGM.

On 3 July 2019, the Company issued the Convertible Bonds in the aggregate principal amount of HK$1,150,000,000 to the Subscribers. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds, the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds is the date falling on the 36th month from the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds, and if that is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day after (i.e. 4 July 2022). As at the Latest Practicable Date, none of the Convertible Bonds have been redeemed, converted or cancelled.

On 6 July 2022 (after trading hours), (i) the Company, as issuer; (ii) Regent Star, Mr. Gao, Wonderfulsky, Ms. Luk, Excel Bright and JIC, as subscribers; and (iii) Mr. Chu, as guarantor, entered into the First Amendment Deed, pursuant to which the parties to the First Amendment Deed conditionally agreed to, among others, amend certain terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds.

On 15 July 2022 (after trading hours), (i) the Company, as issuer; (ii) Regent Star, Mr. Gao, Wonderfulsky, Ms. Luk, Excel Bright and JIC, as subscribers; and (iii) Mr. Chu, as guarantor, entered into the Second Amendment Deed, pursuant to which the parties to the Second Amendment Deed agreed to, among others, amend certain terms and conditions of the First Amendment Deed.

(ii) Mr. Gao:	Mr. Gao Jian Min, who is an Independent Third Party
(iii) Wonderfulsky:	Wonderful Sky Financial Group Holdings Limited, a company incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability, which is an Independent Third Party

(iv) Ms. Luk:	Ms. Luk Ching Sanna, who is an Independent Third Party
(v) Excel Bright:	Excel Bright Capital Limited, a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands with limited liability, which is an Independent Third Party
(vi) JIC:	JIC (Hong Kong) Holding Limited, a company incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability, which is an Independent Third Party
Guarantor:	Mr. Chu Hing Tsung, the chairman of the Board, a co-chief executive officer of the Company and an executive Director, who owns 34.06% of the issued share capital of Rong De Investments Limited, a substantial shareholder (within the meaning of the Listing Rules) of Zhuguang Holdings Group Company Limited, a company whose shares are listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange (stock code: 1176), which is a substantial Shareholder (within the meaning of the Listing Rules) through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Splendid Reach Limited

Pursuant to the Amendment Deeds, the Company and the Subscribers conditionally agreed to amend certain terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds set out in the Bond Instrument as follows:

1. the insertion of the definition of “Closing Price”, being “for the Shares for any Trading Day, last traded price per Share as published in the daily quotation sheet of the Stock Exchange for such day” into the Bond Instrument;
2. the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds (“ ”) shall be extended to 30 December 2022, with the definition of “Maturity Date” as set out in the Bond Instrument to be amended accordingly from “the date falling on the 36th month from the relevant date of issue of the Convertible Bonds, and if that is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day after” to “30 December 2022, and if that is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day after”;
3. the interest rate of the Convertible Bonds shall be adjusted from “seven per cent. (7%) per annum for the period from and including the Issue Date to the Relevant Payment Date”, to “(i) seven per cent. (12%) per annum for the period from the date immediately after the Relevant Payment Date to the Maturity Date”, and the definition of “Convertible Bonds” and all references to the Convertible Bonds (where applicable) in the Bond Instrument shall be accordingly amended by deleting the words “7 per cent.”;

4. the Maturity Redemption Price payable by the Company to redeem all of the Convertible Bonds outstanding on the Maturity Date (“

Under the Proposed Amendments, the Convertible Bonds will be secured by the Additional Securities Documents as follows:

1	Receivables	East Gate Pledge of Receivables	927.8
2		Issuer Pledge of Receivables	161.4
3		SG Guangzhou Pledge of Receivables	120.0
4		Taizhou Dong Tai Pledge of Receivables	926.4
5		Taizhou Yinjian Pledge of Receivables	441.4
6		Yinjian Energy Pledge of Receivables	100.0
7		Assignment of receivables by the Company in favour of the Subscribers	252.2
		Subtotal:	2,929.2
7	Share charge	Beijing Yuanda Share Pledge	(306.3)
8		East Gate Share Pledge	86.4
9		SJI Petrochemical Share Pledge	485.6
10		Pledge over 100% of the issued shares of SGI Petrochemical	73.1
		Subtotal:	338.8
		Total:	3,268.0

1. For illustration purpose, this amount was denominated in HK$ and has been translated into RMB at the rate of RMB1.00 to HK$1.16.
2. These pledges of receivables are pledges over the receivables of the Company of the aggregate amount of approximately HK$292,600,000 (equivalent to approximately RMB252.2 million) and are covered by Assignment of Receivables (in favour of Excel Bright), Assignment of Receivables (in favour of JIC), Assignment of Receivables (in favour of Mr. Gao), Assignment of Receivables (in favour of Ms. Luk), Assignment of Receivables (in favour of Regent Star) and Assignment of Receivables (in favour of Wonderfalsky). The amount of the receivables covered by Assignment of Receivables (in favour of Regent Star) is HK$114,495,652 (equivalent to approximately RMB98,703,148), which is in proportion to the amount of the Convertible Bonds held by Regent Star to the total amount of the Convertible Bonds.
3. This share charge is a pledge over 100% of the equity interest of Taizhou Yinjian, a subsidiary of the Company.

4. This share charge is a pledge over 30% of the equity interest of 信達建潤地產有限公司 (English name for identification purpose only, Xinda Jianrun Real Estate Co., Ltd.), an associate of the Company.
 5. The share charge is a pledge over 17.6118% of the equity interest of Taizhou Dong Tai, an associate of the Company.
 6. These share charges are pledges over 100% of the issued shares of SGI Petrochemical, a subsidiary of the Company, and are covered by HK Share Charge (in favour of Excel Bright), HK Share Charge (in favour of JIC), HK Share Charge (in favour of Mr. Gao), HK Share Charge (in favour of Ms. Luk), HK Share Charge (in favour of Regent Star) and HK Share Charge (in favour of Wonderfultsky).

Based on (1) the aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Bonds of HK$1,150,000,000; and (2) the aggregate value of the Securities constituted under the Additional Securities Documents as at 30 June 2022 amounting to approximately RMB3,268.0 million (equivalent to approximately HK$3,790.9 million based on the exchange rate of HK$1.16 to RMB1.00) as shown in the table above, the loan-to-value (“ ”) ratio of the Convertible Bonds is approximately 30.34%. Such ratio is in line with the LTV of other existing borrowings of the Group. As the security interests of each of the Subscribers in the Securities constituted under the Additional Securities Documents are determined in accordance with the ratio of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds held by each of them to the total principal amount of the Convertible Bonds of HK$1,150,000,000, the LTV ratio of the Convertible Bonds held by each of the Subscribers (including Regent Star) is the same (i.e. approximately 30.34%). In view of the above, the Directors consider that the LTV ratio of the Convertible Bonds held by Regent Star is fair and reasonable.

The Subscribers are entitled to enforce the securities under the Additional Securities Documents, if, among others, the Company fails to pay the sum due under, and/or comply with the terms of, the Bond Instrument and/or the Additional Securities Documents. There is no ranking in terms of enforcement of the Additional Securities Documents and the Guarantees and it is the sole discretion of the Subscribers to determine which securities of the Convertible Bonds (i.e. the Additional Securities Documents and the Guarantees) would be enforced (including the order of enforcement) upon the default of the Company. As the assets pledged by the Group pursuant to the Additional Securities Documents are not related to the remaining assets of the Group (“ ”), which mainly consist of investment properties, deposits, prepayment and other receivables and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss that amount to approximately HK$4,564,488,000 in aggregate and account for approximately 90.63% of the value of the Remaining Assets of approximately HK$5,036,316,000 as recorded in the Company’s audited consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2021 in the Company’s annual report for the year ended 31 December 2021, enforcement of the securities under the Additional Securities Documents by the Subscribers will not have an impact on the Remaining Assets. In addition, the Group is principally engaged in property leasing and investments. The assets covered by the Additional Securities Documents are receivables of the Group (mainly the loans granted by the Group to its joint venture, associates and independent third parties) or the equity interests in subsidiaries and associates of the Company holding receivables of the Group; and the Group’s investment properties and investments in financial assets are not covered by the Additional Securities Documents. As such, it is expected that the enforcement of the Additional Securities Documents will not affect the Group’s principal business activities.

Pursuant to the Amendment Deeds, in consideration of the Subscribers agreeing to the Proposed Amendments, the Company shall:

1. on the Relevant Payment Date, pay to each of the Subscribers the outstanding interest owed under the Bond Instrument as at the Relevant Payment Date (i.e. all outstanding interest accrued for the entire principal amount of the Convertible Bonds at the rate of 7% per annum during the period from 3 January 2022 to 4 July 2022) (“ ”);
2. on or before 11 July 2022, pay to each of the Subscribers a fee, which shall be equal to 16.5% of the entire principal amount of the Convertible Bonds outstanding held by each Subscriber on the Relevant Payment Date (“ ”), which is determined with reference to the amount of 16.5% of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds outstanding as at the Maturity Date payable by the Company upon redemption of the Convertible Bonds on the Maturity Date in accordance with the Bond Instrument (before the Proposed Amendments);
3. on or before 15 July 2022 (or such later date as permitted by the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate)), enter into a supplemental deed to the First Amendment Deed (in such form and content as requested by and satisfactory to the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate) in their sole and absolute discretion) which sets out, among others, (i) the arrangement(s) on the provision by the Company of such additional Securities to secure the Convertible Bonds as determined and requested by the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate) in their sole and absolute discretion; and (ii) the registration and related arrangement thereof, and provide all such additional Securities to secure the Convertible Bonds as determined and requested by the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate) in their sole and absolute discretion by delivering to the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate) the Additional Securities Documents (other than the PRC Securities Documents) (in such form and format as requested by and satisfactory to the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate) in their sole and absolute discretion), and the duly executed but undated PRC Securities Documents (in such form and format as requested by and satisfactory to the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate) in their sole and absolute discretion) signed by the relevant PRC Security Provider;
4. on or before 15 July 2022 (or such later date as permitted by the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate)), procure the relevant security provider(s) to which it is a party to the Additional Securities Documents to enter into or to execute (as the case may be) the Additional Securities Documents with the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate);

5. on or before 15 July 2022 (or such later date as permitted by the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate)), publish an announcement setting out the arrangement on the provisions of the additional Securities to secure the Convertible Bonds as contemplated under the Additional Securities Documents in such form and content as requested by and satisfactory to the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate) in their sole and absolute discretion (“ ”);
 6. irrevocably authorize the PRC Security Agent to decide the date of and to put such date in the Issuer Pledge of Receivables in its sole and absolute discretion on and after the Issuer Pledge of Receivables becomes effective, provided that such date shall be the Effective Date or other date no earlier than the Effective Date; and
 7. procure each PRC Security Provider, on a date no later than 15 July 2022 (or such later date as permitted by the Subscribers (or the PRC Security Agent, as appropriate)), to irrevocably authorize the PRC Security Agent to decide the date of and to put such date in each PRC Security Documents (excluding the Issuer Pledge of Receivables) to which such PRC Security Provider is a party, in the PRC Security Agent’s sole and absolute discretion, provided that such date shall be the Effective Date or other date no earlier than the Effective Date.

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding that the Additional Securities Documents (other than the PRC Securities Documents) shall be entered into between the parties thereto on or before 15 July 2022 (or such later date as permitted by the Subscribers (or their security agent, as appropriate)) as set out in the Amendment Deeds, the Additional Securities Documents (other than the PRC Securities Documents) shall immediately become effective simultaneously when the Proposed Amendments become effective on the Effective Date, while the PRC Securities Documents shall become effective after the PRC Security Agent put the date (such date shall be the Effective Date or other date no earlier than the Effective Date) in it. - (1) Zhuguang Holdings Group Company Limited owns 681,240,022 Shares through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Splendid Reach Limited. Zhuguang Holdings Group Company Limited is owned as to approximately 66.85% by Rong De Investments Limited, which is owned as to 34.06% by the Guarantor.

Regent Star is a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands which is indirectly wholly owned by China Cinda Asset Management Co., Ltd., a company incorporated in the PRC whose ordinary shares are listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange (stock code: 1359). Regent Star is principally engaged in domestic and foreign non-performing assets investment, equity investment, mezzanine investments, debt investments and securities investments, medium and long-term bonds issuance, high quality assets and structured fixed income products and crossborder financial services. As at the Latest Practicable Date, as Regent Star holds 438,056,000 Shares, representing approximately 19.01% of the issued share capital of the Company, it is a connected person of the Company.

The Company is an investment holding company, which is engaged in property investment and securities trading. The Group is principally engaged in property leasing and investments. The Proposed Amendments, which are arrived at after arm's length negotiations between the Company and the Subscribers, will allow the Company to postpone substantial cash outflow to finance its repayment of the Convertible Bonds which is due on the original Maturity Date (i.e. 4 July 2022), and enjoy more financial flexibility when planning its financial resources, so that it may apply its financial resources to fund the Group's business operations and development without the need to incur substantial additional financing costs to fulfil its obligation with respect to the repayment of the Convertible Bonds. The disadvantages of the Proposed Amendments are that the Company has to pay interest on the Convertible Bonds up to the revised Maturity Date and upon the default of the Company under the Bond Instrument, there may be enforcement of the Additional Securities Documents.

The Company has considered other alternative means of fund raising to redeem the Convertible Bonds prior to entering into the Amendment Deeds. In terms of obtaining bank borrowings from commercial banks, the Company is of the view that the ability of the Group to obtain bank borrowings usually depends on, among others, the profitability of the Group, which was in a loss-making position for the last two (2) financial years, as well as the prevailing market conditions. The Company is cognisant of the fact that the possibility of the rental market in Beijing to improve in the short term is unlikely due to further adverse impacts from the resurgence of large-scale outbreaks of the COVID-19 pandemic which took place in the PRC in the first quarter of 2022. In addition, the Group may be subject to lengthy due diligence and commercial negotiations, the process of which would usually take at least two to three months. The Company considers that it may not be cost and time effective to obtain such borrowings. The Company has also considered that if the Company were to raise the necessary funds by way of placing of new Shares, rights issue or open offer to finance the repayment of the Convertible Bonds, the subscription price would have to be set at a deep discount to the prevailing market price of the Shares so as to attract subscription by potential investors or existing Shareholders. In addition, rights issue or open offer of new Shares is subject to underwriting uncertainty and market risks whilst any arm's length underwriting may incur a higher transaction cost (i.e. underwriting and other related fees). Furthermore, placing, rights issue or open offer of new Shares will incur immediate dilution effect on the shareholding of non-participating Shareholders while the dilution effect on the Convertible Bonds will only occur when the Subscribers exercise the conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds. As the original conversion price of the Convertible Bonds (being HK$2.33 as disclosed in the 2019 Circular) was significantly out-of-the money as at the dates of the Amendment Deeds, it is expected that the Subscribers will not exercise their conversion rights under the current situation. Accordingly, the Company considered that other financing alternatives are currently not the most appropriate means to refinance the Convertible Bonds.

As such, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors but excluding Mr. Tang Lunfei and Mr. Chen Zhiwei who are considered to have material interests in the transactions contemplated under the Amendment Deeds (including the Proposed Amendments)) consider that the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments) are fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Pursuant to Rule 28.05 of the Listing Rules, any alterations in the terms of convertible debt securities after issue must be approved by the Stock Exchange, except where the alterations take effect automatically under the existing terms of such convertible debt securities. The Company will make an application to the Stock Exchange for approval of the Proposed Amendments.

Taking into consideration that as at the Latest Practicable Date, Mr. Tang Lunfei, an executive Director, is a senior management of the associates of Regent Star while Mr. Chen Zhiwei, a non-executive Director, is a director of Regent Star and a senior management of the associates of Regent Star, both Mr. Tang Lunfei and Mr. Chen Zhiwei are considered to have material interests in the transactions contemplated under the Amendment Deeds (including the Proposed Amendments). Accordingly, Mr. Tang Lunfei and Mr. Chen Zhiwei have abstained from voting on the relevant Board resolutions for approving the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments). Save as disclosed above, none of the other Directors has a material interest in the transactions contemplated under the Amendment Deeds (including the Proposed Amendments).

A notice convening the EGM is set out on pages EGM-1 to EGM-3 of this circular. The EGM will be held at Room 1, 26/F, Guangzhou Jiayu Center, 769 Huacheng Avenue, Tianhe District, Guangzhou, Guangdong Province, the People's Republic of China on Wednesday, 24 August 2022 at 11:00 a.m. or any adjournment thereof, for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, approving, the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments).

As at the Latest Practicable Date, so far as the Directors were aware and based on publicly available information, Regent Star and its associate(s) were interested in 438,056,000 Shares, representing approximately 19.01% of the total number of Shares in issue. As Regent Star is considered to have material interests in the transactions contemplated under the Amendment Deeds, Regent Star and its associate(s) will therefore abstain from voting on the resolution approving the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments) at the EGM.

Save for the aforesaid and to the best knowledge, information and belief of the Company, as at the Latest Practicable Date, no other Shareholder had a material interest in the Amendment Deeds and is required to abstain from voting on the proposed resolution at the EGM.

A form of proxy for use at the EGM is enclosed with this circular. Completion and return of the form of proxy will not preclude you from attending and voting in person at the EGM or any adjournment thereof should you so wish.

Pursuant to Rule 13.39(4) of the Listing Rules, all votes of the Independent Shareholders at the EGM will be taken by poll except where the chairman, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands will be taken by poll and the Company will announce the results of the poll in the manner prescribed under Rule 13.39(5) of the Listing Rules.

An Independent Board Committee has been established to advise the Independent Shareholders in relation to the Amendment Deeds. Opus Capital Limited has been appointed as the Independent Financial Adviser to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders in this regard.

Having considered the reasons and benefits to the Group to be brought by the Amendment Deeds, and the advice of the Independent Financial Adviser on the Proposed Amendments, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors but excluding Mr. Tang Lunfei and Mr. Chen Zhiwei who are considered to have material interests in the transactions contemplated under the Amendment Deeds (including the Proposed Amendments)) consider that the terms of the Amendment Deeds are on normal commercial terms and the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments) are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole and they are fair and reasonable to the Company. Accordingly, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors but excluding Mr. Tang Lunfei and Mr. Chen Zhiwei who are considered to have material interests in the transactions contemplated under the Amendment Deeds (including the Proposed Amendments)) recommend the Shareholders and the Independent Shareholders (as the case may be) to vote in favour of the ordinary resolution to be proposed at the EGM to approve the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments).

In arriving at our opinion in respect of the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments), we have taken into consideration the following principal factors and reasons:

The Company is an investment holding company, which is engaged in property investment and securities trading. The Group is principally engaged in property leasing and investments. The following table summarises the financial information of the Group for FY2020 and FY2021 as extracted from the 2021 Annual Report:

Revenue	87,478	89,244
Finance costs	(410,008)	(216,675)
(Loss) for the year	(1,812,494)	(441,108)
(Loss) attributable to owners of the Company	(1,452,609)	(317,641)

During FY2020 and FY2021, the revenue of the Group was mainly generated from rental income derived from East Gate Plaza, which is an investment property of the Group comprising a mixture of residential and commercial units located in Beijing, China. The rental income from the Group's property leasing business decreased by approximately 2.0% from approximately HK$89.1 million for FY2020 to approximately HK$87.4 million for FY2021. The revenue decrease was mainly due to a decline in the average rental rate per square metre of East Gate Plaza in FY2021 which was attributable to the effect of ongoing COVID-19 pandemic (the " ") that resulted in uncertain business environment, and indirectly affected the rental market condition. It was difficult for the Company to negotiate for a higher rental with existing tenants when tenancies expire and it also had to offer rental discounts to attract new tenants under such weak market sentiment. This is despite its occupancy rate maintained steadily at approximately 80% during the two (2) financial years. Therefore it has resulted in the loss of rental income for the Group.

The Group recorded loss attributable to owners of the Company of approximately HK$1.5 billion for FY2021, representing a significant deterioration in its loss position by approximately 357.3% from a loss of HK$317.6 million for FY2020. The decline in the loss position of the Group was mainly due to: (i) a rise in finance costs of the Group to approximately HK$410.0 million for FY2021 consisting of the issue of 7.5% senior secured guaranteed note in an aggregate principal amount of US$19,800,000 in December 2020 and an approximate 196.1% increase in the Group's Property Company Limited* (信達建潤地產有限公司) (" "), an associate company of the Company. The Company recorded a share of loss of approximately HK$43.7 million in FY2021 as opposed to a share of profit in FY2020 of approximately HK$3.3 million. This was loss held by Cinda Jianrun as at 31 December 2021; and (iii) a substantial increase of approximately 250.8% in the loss recognised by the Company from its joint venture, Zhong Hai You Qi (Tai Zhou) Petrochemical Company Limited* (中海油氣(泰州)石化有限公司) (" ") in FY2021 from a loss of approximately HK$404.1 million for FY2020 to a loss of approximately HK$1.4 billion for FY2021. The major factor contributing to the loss position was the additional sales tax and related tax surcharge as well as late fees charges for prior years incurred by Zhong Hai You Qi during FY2021 following a self-tax review conducted as required by the relevant tax authority in the PRC.

Set out below is the summary of the financial positions of the Group as at 31 December 2020 and 2021, as extracted from the 2021 Annual Report:

Non-current assets	7,436,538	7,252,983
Current assets	4,135,421	3,985,879
Current liabilities	2,359,152	764,741
Non-current liabilities	3,494,574	3,090,128
Net asset value (the “

The current assets mainly consisted of deposits, prepayments and other receivables, amount due from a joint venture, loan receivables, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and cash and bank balances. The total current assets increased from approximately HK$4.0 billion as at 31 December 2020 to approximately HK$4.1 billion as at 31 December 2021, representing a slight increase by approximately 3.8%. The rise was mainly due to combined factors consisting of: (i) a surge in deposits, prepayments and other receivables by approximately HK$293.6 million; (ii) additional loan receivables by approximately HK$1.0 billion; and (iii) a decrease in cash and bank balances by approximately HK$653.0 million.

Based on the above, the Group recorded total assets of approximately HK$11.6 billion as at 31 December 2021, representing a slight increase of approximately 3.0% compared to the position as at 31 December 2020.

The major components in the current liabilities of the Group were mainly accrued charges, rental deposits and other payables, interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, taxation payable and the Convertible Bonds. The Group recorded a significant increase of approximately 208.5% in its current liabilities from approximately HK$764.7 million as at 31 December 2020 to approximately HK$2.4 billion as at 31 December 2021. Such increase was largely due to: (i) a considerable increase of approximately 41.1% in accrued charges, rental deposits and other payables; (ii) an increase in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings by approximately HK$171.7 million as the Company obtained additional borrowings of approximately HK$180.0 million; and (iii) the re-classification of the Convertible Bonds to current liabilities since it is due within one (1) year.

As at 31 December 2021, the Company was faced with a rise in total non-current liabilities to approximately HK$3.5 billion, representing an increase of approximately 13.1%. The Company obtained additional borrowings of approximately HK$2.5 billion which contributed to an increase in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings to approximately HK$1.6 billion. As a result, the total liabilities of the Group were enlarged by approximately 51.9%, to approximately HK$5.9 billion as at 31 December 2021.

As a result of the combination of movements of total assets and total liabilities of the Group highlighted above, the NAV attributable to owners of the Company recorded a decrease of approximately 20.3% to approximately HK$5.2 billion as at 31 December 2021.

Pursuant to the Proposed Amendments, the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds (“ ”) shall be extended to 30 December 2022, from the initial maturity date of 4 July 2022, representing approximately an additional six months from the initial maturity date. As discussed with the Management, we understand that the Company is expected to receive a cash inflow of approximately HK$1.3 billion within the next 6 months. Such cash inflow is mainly attributable to repayment of shareholder’s loan of approximately HK$1.3 billion due in December 2022 from a joint venture. Accordingly, the Company will have sufficient internal resources when the Company is required to redeem the Convertible Bonds on the Maturity Date.

As discussed with the Management, we note that the Management has considered other alternative means of fund raising to redeem the Convertible Bonds prior to entering into the Amendment Deeds. In terms of obtaining bank borrowings from commercial banks, it is noted that the Company had already obtained additional borrowings of approximately HK$180.0 million in FY2021, recording an increase in short term interest-bearing bank and other borrowings by approximately HK$171.7 million as at 31 December 2021 compared to the previous financial year. The Management is of the view that the ability of the Group to obtain bank borrowings usually depends on, among others, the profitability of the Group, which was in a loss-making position for the last two (2) financial years, as well as the prevailing market conditions. The Management is cognisant of the fact that the possibility of the rental market in Beijing to improve in the short term is unlikely due to further adverse impact from the resurgent of large-scale outbreak of the Pandemic that took place in the PRC in the first quarter of 2022. In addition, the Group may be subject to lengthy due diligence and commercial negotiations, the process of which usually would take at least two to three months. The Management considers that it may not be cost and time effective to obtain such borrowings.

The Management has also considered that if the Company were to raise the necessary funds by way of placing of new Shares, right issue or open offer to finance the repayment of the Convertible Bonds, the subscription price would have to be set at a deep discount to the prevailing market price of the Shares so as to attract subscription by potential investors or existing Shareholders. In addition, rights issue or open offer of new Shares is subject to underwriting uncertainty and market risks whilst any arm’s length underwriting may incur a higher transaction cost (i.e. underwriting and other related fees). Furthermore, placing, rights issue or open offer of new Shares will incur immediate dilution effect on the shareholding of non-participating Shareholders while the dilution effect on the Convertible Bonds will only occur when the Subscribers exercises the conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds. As disclosed in the 2019 Circular, as the original conversion price of the Convertible Bonds (being HK$2.33) was significantly out-of-the money as at the dates of entering into the Amendment Deeds, it is expected the Subscribers will not exercise their conversion rights under the current situation. Accordingly the Management considered that other financing alternatives are currently not the most appropriate means to refinance the Convertible Bonds.

It is noted that the extension of the original Maturity Date is only for six (6) months. We have discussed with the Management and understand that pursuant to their discussion with the Subscribers, the Subscribers are only willing to consider this extension tenure taking into account the current market conditions.

In view of the above factors, we therefore concur with the view of the Board that the entering into of the Amendment Deeds would be the best financing alternative available to the Company. Furthermore the Amendment Deeds are applicable to all the Subscribers, whether they are connected person or Independent Third Parties.

Having considered: (i) the Proposed Amendments will allow the Company to postpone substantial cash outflow to finance its repayment of the Convertible Bonds; (ii) the Independent Third Party subscribers will be subject to the same terms under the Proposed Amendments, such that Regent Star, being a connected person of the Company, is not in a more favourable position under the Proposed Amendments; (iii) the Proposed Amendments are generally in line with recent market practice as discussed in the section headed “5. Comparable analysis” below, we therefore concur with the Management’s view that the Proposed Amendments are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Pursuant to the Amendment Deeds, the Company and the Subscribers conditionally agreed to amend certain terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds set out in the Bond Instrument as follows:

- (i) the insertion of the definition of “Closing Price”, being “for the Shares for any Trading Day, last traded price per Share as published in the daily quotation sheet of the Stock Exchange for such day”, into the Bond Instrument;
- (ii) the Maturity Date shall be extended to 30 December 2022, with the definition of “Maturity Date” as set out in the Bond Instrument to be amended accordingly from “the date falling on the 36th month from the relevant date of issue of the Convertible Bonds, and if that is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day after” to “30 December 2022, and if that is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day after”;
- (iii) the interest rate of the Convertible Bonds shall be adjusted from “seven per cent.  - (v) the Convertible Bonds shall be secured by the additional Securities in accordance with the Additional Securities Documents and the status of the Convertible Bonds set out in the Bond Instrument shall be adjusted from “The Convertible Bonds constitute direct, guaranteed, unsecured, unsubordinated and unconditional obligations of the Company and shall at all times rank and without any preference or priority among themselves and at least with all other present and future direct, unsecured, unsubordinated and unconditional obligations of the Company” to “The Convertible Bonds constitute direct, guaranteed, secured, unsubordinated and unconditional obligations of the Company and shall at all times rank and without any preference or priority among themselves and at least with all other present and future direct, secured, unsubordinated and unconditional obligations of the Company”, and the definition of “Convertible Bonds” in the Bond Instrument shall be amended by replacing the word “unsecured” with the word “secured”;
 - (vi) the period of the notice to be given by the Company to the Subscribers for early redemption of the Convertible Bonds by the Company shall be adjusted from “not less than thirty (30) days”, to “not less than (5) days”; and

Save as disclosed above, there are no other amendments to the terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds (in particular, no amendment is made to the Conversion Price). For further details of the principal terms of the Amendment Deed, please refer to section headed “Amendment Deeds” in the Letter from the Board.

In relation to the proposed amendment of the interest rate set out in (iii) under section headed “4. The Amendment Deeds” above, the revised interest rate of 12% per annum is determined with reference to the internal rate of return (“IRR”) of the Convertible Bonds (before the Proposed Amendments), calculated based on the issue prices, interest rate, term to maturity and redemption amounts at maturity, of approximately 12.0%, so that the IRR of the Convertible Bonds (after the Proposed Amendments becoming effective) would be maintained. For our analysis in relation to the computation of the IRR, please refer to the sub-section headed “Interest rate” below.

For the avoidance of doubt, we noted that the Relevant Fee forms the redemption premium as stipulated under the clause “Redemption on maturity” (i.e. 116.5% of the principal amount of the outstanding Convertible Bonds) under the principal terms of the Convertible Bonds as stated under the 2019 Circular and therefore the Company does not incur additional fee payable pursuant to the Amendment Deeds.

For our due diligence purpose, we have obtained from the Management and reviewed the list of share charge and receivables (collectively, the “Receivables”) as stipulated under the Amendment Deeds to secure the Convertible Bonds, together with the respective management accounts of Taizhou Yinjian, Xinda Jianrun Real Estate Co., Ltd.* (信達建潤地產有限公司) (“Xinda Jianrun”) and Taizhou Dong Tai. As stated in the Letter from the Board, the Subscribers are entitled to enforce the securities under the Additional Securities Documents, if, among others, the Company fails to pay the sum due under, and/or comply with the terms of, the Bond Instrument and/or the Additional Securities Documents. There is no ranking in terms of enforcement of the Additional Securities Documents and the Guarantees and it is the sole discretion of the Subscribers to determine which securities of the Convertible Bonds (i.e. the Additional Securities Documents and the Guarantees) would be enforced (including the order of enforcement) upon the default of the Company. As the assets pledged by the Group pursuant to the Additional Securities Documents are not related to the Remaining Assets, which mainly consist of investment properties, deposits, prepayment and other receivables and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss that amount to approximately HK$4,564,488,000 in aggregate and account for approximately 90.63% of the value of the Remaining Assets of approximately HK$5,036,316,000 as recorded in the Company's audited consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2021 in the Company's annual report for FY2021, enforcement of the securities under the Additional Securities Documents by the Subscribers will not have an impact on the Remaining Assets. In addition, the Group is principally engaged in property leasing and investments. The assets covered by the Additional Securities Documents are receivables of the Group (mainly the loans granted by the Group to its joint venture, associates and independent third parties) or the equity interests in subsidiaries and associates of the Company holding receivables of the Group; and the Group's investment properties and investments in financial assets are not covered by the Additional Securities Documents. As such, it is expected that the enforceability of the Additional Securities Documents will not materially affect the Group's principal business activities.

In assessing the fairness and reasonableness of the key terms of the Proposed Amendments, including the Maturity Date and the amount payable to redeem the Convertible Bonds, we have conducted a research, on a best effort basis, on recent transactions involving amendments of convertible bonds/notes to both connected persons and independent third parties by companies listed on the Stock Exchange (the “ ”). We have considered the proposed amendments of convertible bonds/notes to both connected persons and independent third parties in our research, since the terms of such amendments were arrived at based on prevailing market conditions regardless of whether the subscribers are connected persons or not and represent an unbiased reference on market terms, therefore providing a decent reference in our evaluation of the terms of the Proposed Amendments. Based on our best endeavour and as far as we are aware, we have identified a total 13 Comparable Amendments, which was announced during a period of six months prior to and including 6 July 2022, being the date of the First Amendment Deed (the “ ”) to provide a general reference for and to compare with the recent market practice in relation to the amendments on the terms of the convertible bonds/notes under similar market condition. We consider that the Comparison Period is appropriate since it provided, in our opinion, a reasonable and meaningful number of samples for our analysis purpose and the Comparable Amendments are a fair and representative sample.

Shareholders should note that the principal businesses, market capitalisations, profitability and financial positions of the companies undertaking the Comparable Amendments may not be the same as those of the Company, and we have not conducted any in-depth investigation into their businesses and operations. As the Comparable Amendments can provide a general reference of the key terms for similar amendments in Hong Kong under the current market conditions, we consider, to the best of our knowledge and ability, that the Comparable Amendments are exhaustive, fair and indicative in assessing the fairness and reasonableness of the key terms of the Proposed Amendments.

1. The announcement issued by China First Capital Group Limited (1269.HK) on 19 April 2022 was excluded from the Comparable Amendments as it was related to a termination of the proposed amendment and restatement agreement to the convertible bonds, which does not involve amending the key terms for our comparison purpose.

We noted that the extension period of the Comparable Amendments ranged from 6 months to 36 months, with an average being 15 months. The proposed extension period of six months as contemplated under the Amendment Deeds falls within the range of the Comparable Amendments and is also below the average and equivalent to the minimum extension period as recorded by the Comparable Amendments. Assuming the Proposed Amendments will take effect, we consider that from the perspective of the Company's interest payment obligations, the proposed extension period of six months can be regarded as favourable to the Company since the Company would incur less interest payment as compared to a relatively longer extension period which will result in higher interest payment due to the longer duration.

We have attempted to assess the whether the Comparable Amendments would also involve the alteration in redemption rate but none was noted during the Comparison Period. Based on their respective initial announcements of the issuance of convertible bonds/notes, the redemption rate was already 100% of the then outstanding amount on the relevant maturity date and remained unchanged. For our analysis on decreasing the redemption rate while increasing the interest rate simultaneously under the Proposed Amendment, please refer to the sub-section headed "Interest rate" below.

As shown in the table above, we note that the interest rate of the Comparable Amendments ranged from nil to 15.0%, with the average being 6.8%. The proposed upward amendment of interest rate to 12.0% is within the range but above the average of the Comparable Amendments.

For our due diligence purpose, we have obtained a list of indebtedness as at 30 June 2022 from the Company and noted that the interest rate of the secured or unsecured existing bank loans, shareholder loan and other loans ranged from 5.0% to 12.0% per annum. Accordingly the interest rate of the Convertible Bonds pursuant to the Proposed Amendments falls within the range of interest rates of the existing debts of the Company.

With reference to the 2019 Circular in relation to the Convertible Bonds, as discussed in the subsection headed “8.2 Comparable Issues” under Appendix II — Letter from the independent financial adviser, the IRR of the Convertible Bonds, calculated based on the issue prices, interest rate, term to maturity and redemption amounts at maturity was approximately 12.0%. We understand from the Management that pursuant to the arm’s length negotiations between the Company and the Subscribers, the intention was to structure the Proposed Amendments to be in line with the initial IRR of the Convertible Bonds when it was initially issued on 3 July 2019. Accordingly, with the combined changes in: (a) the increase in interest rate from 7% to 12% per annum; (b) the decrease in the redemption rate at maturity from 116.5% to 100.0%; and (c) to extend the Maturity Date by a further six months, the IRR of the Convertible Bonds remained unchanged at 12.0% pursuant to the Proposed Amendments.

Pursuant to the Amendment Deeds, the Convertible Bonds shall be secured by the Securities to be executed by the Company in favour of the Subscribers (or their security agents). As advised by the Management, as security for the due and punctual payment of the Convertible Bonds and performance by the Company of its repayment obligations under the Amendment Deeds, the Company execute the Securities as a collateral for payment and discharge of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds and performance by the Company pursuant to the Amendment Deeds.

As illustrated above under the title headed “Table 3: List of securities of the Convertible Bonds”, we noted that the total value of the Securities as at 30 June 2022 were approximately RMB3,268.0 million (equivalent to approximately HK$3,790.9 million based on the exchange rate of HK$1.16 to RMB1.00). As stated in the Letter from the Board, the LTV (as defined in the Letter from the Board) ratio of the Convertible Bonds is approximately 30.34%. Such ratio is in line with the LTV of other existing borrowings of the Group. As the security interests of each of the Subscribers in the Securities constituted under the Additional Securities Documents are determined in accordance with the ratio of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds held by each of them to the total principal amount of the Convertible Bonds of HK$1,150,000,000, the LTV ratio of the Convertible Bonds held by each of the Subscribers (including Regent Star) is the same (i.e. approximately 30.34%). Based on the above, we have assessed the fairness and reasonableness of the LTV ratio and noted the total value of the Securities is discounted by approximately 69.7% as compared to the aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Bonds of HK$1,150,000,000. With respect to such discount, we have performed desktop research and noted from the websites of several sizeable commercial banks in Hong Kong that the discount applied on pledged listing securities for securities-backed financing generally ranged from approximately 25% to 65%. Furthermore, the PRC Pledge of Receivables and the shares of Taizhou Yinjian, Xinda Jianrun, Taizhou Dong Tai and SGI Petrochemical, being private companies, are not freely tradable on any stock exchanges. Therefore we are of the view that it is fair and reasonable to apply a higher discount for lack of marketability (DLOM) of approximately 69.7% on the total value of the Securities.

Given the fact that the LTV ratio of the Convertible Bonds is in line with our assessment of DL0M in relation to the securities-backed financing, we are of the view that it is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

We also noted that there are six Comparable Amendments that consist of provision of personal or corporate guarantees as collateral under the respective convertible bonds/notes. Accordingly, we consider that the provision of corporate guarantee is a normal market practice. In addition, we noted that: (i) four of the Comparable Amendments were secured by share charge/pledge of securities and two of which also included the provision of personal or corporate guarantees simultaneously. In this regard, the provision of personal or corporate guarantee together with share charge or pledge of securities might appear to be relatively less common in convertible bonds within the Comparison Period; and (ii) the total value of the Securities (i.e. HK$3,790.9 million) as at 30 June 2022 which represented approximately 32.7% of the total assets (i.e. HK$11.6 billion) of the Group as at 31 December 2021 may constitute a major portion of the total asset of the Group. Nevertheless, we consider that:

- (a) the underlying reasons for amending the terms of the convertible bonds/notes varied and the issuer's business scale, financial position, market capitalisation, industry sectors, credit profiles and growth prospect might also be taken into account during the negotiation process. It is therefore reasonable that the terms of the convertible bonds/notes are amended with different purposes and whether the Comparable Amendments include any share charge/pledge of securities will not render the Comparable Amendments becoming not meaningful;
- (b) we understand from the Management that during the arm's length negotiations between the Company and the Subscribers for the Proposed Amendments, it is a specific request proposed by the Subscribers who are Independent Third Parties to particularly include the provision of both the personal or corporate guarantee as well as share charge or pledge of securities. Consequently, Mr. Chu, being a substantial Shareholder, is willing to continue to provide the personal guarantees to assist the Company in reaching an agreement with the Subscribers on the Proposed Amendments. Such course of action should be favourably viewed as his intention in providing continuous support to the Group and his effort in promoting the Group's long-term growth and development;
- (c) based on the fact that the original Maturity Date of the Convertible Bonds is due on 4 July 2022, the Proposed Amendments allow the Company to postpone substantial cash outflow to finance its repayment of the Convertible Bonds and to enjoy more financial flexibility. At the same time the Proposed Amendments make the Convertible Bonds more appealing to the Subscribers and it could also serve as a continuing incentive for the Subscribers;

- (d) as the original conversion price of the Convertible Bonds (being HK$2.33 as disclosed in the 2019 Circular) was significantly out-of-money as at the dates of the Amendment Deeds, yet the Proposed Amendments did not involve in any downward adjustment of the conversion price. This has indirectly

As stated in the 2021 Annual Report, the Group had cash and bank balances of approximately HK$116.8 million as at 31 December 2021. Furthermore, the Group recorded current liabilities of approximately HK$2.36 billion and total liabilities of approximately HK$5.85 billion as at 31 December 2021. The extension of the Maturity Date of the Convertible Bonds pursuant to the Amendment Deeds will enable the Group to postpone a substantial cash outflow. Alternatively, if the relevant resolution for approving the Amendment Deeds was voted down at the EGM, the Company may not have sufficient internal resource immediately available to redeem the Convertible Bonds of HK$1,150,000,000 in full at the original Maturity Date and the Subscribers may call for a default on the redemption of the Convertibles Bonds, which will indirectly have a material adverse impact on the operations and financial position of the Group. Albeit the increase in interest rate, the Proposed Amendments nonetheless would alleviate the pressure on the cash flow of the Group.

According to the 2021 Annual Report, the adjusted gearing ratio of the Group, calculated as net borrowings (borrowings and convertible bonds issued by the Company net of pledged bank deposits and cash and bank balances) over equity attributable to owners of the Company, was approximately 93.57% as at 31 December 2021. Under the Amendment Deeds and subject to other conditions, the Subscribers undertake to the Company that, among others, each of the Subscribers: (i) agrees to withhold the exercise of its rights to demand for redemption of the Outstanding Bonds in accordance with the Bond Instrument during the period from the dates of the Amendment Deeds and until the earlier of the Termination Date, the Long Stop Date or the Effective Date (exclusive of the Termination Date, the Long Stop Date or the Effective Date); and (ii) shall not exercise the Conversion Rights, provided however that, if it decides to exercise the Conversion Rights after the full payment of the Relevant Fee has been made by the Company, it shall refund the Relevant Fee in full to the Company on the date when it exercises the Conversion Rights, it is therefore expected that the Proposed Amendments will have no immediate material impact on the gearing level and capital structure of the Group for FY2022. In the event that the Subscribers were to exercise the Conversion Rights after the Relevant Fee being paid by the Company, the Company will be eligible for the repayment of the Relevant Fee and the cashflow of the Company will be preserved in this respect.

On the other hand, the proposed upward revision in interest rate would increase the proposed interest rate from 5.0% to 5.5% (revised from 5.0% to 5.5%)

The aforementioned analyses are for illustrative purpose only and do not purport to represent how the financial position of the Group will be after the Proposed Amendments.

In view of the above and having considered in particular that:

- (i) it is not the intention of the Group to secure other borrowings to redeem the Convertible Bonds on the Maturity Date;
- (ii) the proposed upward revision in interest rate is within the range among the Comparable Amendments and the interest rates of the existing debts of the Group;
- (iii) the Proposed Amendments enable the Group to postpone a substantial cash outflow, allowing the Company to retain working capital to support its operations and development; and
- (iv) the terms of the Amendment Deeds are in line with the Comparable Amendments and are applicable to all the Subscribers, whether they are connected person or Independent Third Parties, we are of the opinion that although the entering into of the Amendment Deeds was not conducted in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, the terms of the Amendment Deeds are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned and are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Accordingly, we advise the Independent Board Committee to recommend, and we ourselves recommend, the Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the relevant resolution approving the Amendment Deeds and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including the Proposed Amendments) at the EGM.

Yours faithfully,
For and on behalf of
